

SUPPLEMENTAL REMARKS

In order to prevent confusion, Applicant wishes to correct a typographical error in the Reply it filed yesterday, June 28, 2004. In its June 28, 2004 Reply, Applicant made the following statements:

- a) "Claims 1-28 are pending in this Application" in the first paragraph of the Remarks section;
- b) "Claims 2-13 and 26, claims 15-17 and 27, and claims 19-25 and 28 depend ultimately from claims 1, 14, and 18, respectively, and are considered allowable for at least the same reasons. In addition, new claims 26-28 recite further features not disclosed or suggested by any combination of the cited patents. New claims 26-28 recite that ..." in the final paragraph of the Remarks section; and
- c) "claims 1-28 are in a condition for allowance" in the Conclusion section.

There is no claim 28, and the only claims pending in this Application are claims 1-27. Thus, each of the foregoing statements should read as follows:

- a) "Claims 1-27 are pending in this Application";
- b) "Claims 2-13 and 26, claims 15-17 and 27, and claims 19-25 depend ultimately from claims 1, 14, and 18, respectively, and are considered allowable for at least the same reasons. In addition, new claims 26-27 recite further features not disclosed or suggested by any combination of the cited patents. New claims 26-27 recite that ..."; and
- c) "claims 1-27 are in a condition for allowance."
